Ebook Code:
RENZ1043

For Ages 10+

Teaching With Movies

Thematic and integrated learning through the use of two popular movies.

CONTENTS

Ready-Ed
Publications

Myths, Fairy Tales & Legends Chart

1) Title of story: _____

2) Where did the story come from? (You may have to do some library or Internet research.)

_____

_____

3) Hero or heroine/s (good characters):

_____

_____

4) Villain (bad character – the main character opposing the hero/heroine):

_____

5) Relationship between the good and bad characters:

_____

_____

6) What is the main goal or mission of the hero or heroine of the story?

_____

_____

7) What has to be overcome in order to reach the solution?

_____

8) What is the solution to the obstacle?

_____

_____

9) Is there any kind of magic or higher force used in the story? Explain.

_____

_____

Plot Development - 1

All stories have a plot. A plot is a plan of events or happenings that move from one point to the next.

Star Wars: A New Hope* is a story in the classic fairy tale and storytelling genre. We call this telling of a story in film a film narrative.

List ten main events from the film Star Wars: A New Hope.

|
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

Which event do you think is the high point or climax of the film? Give reasons for your choice.

_____

_____

Plot Development - 2

Using the line graph below, arrange your plot events in order. Use your list of events from the previous activity on page 8.

Show how each event builds up to the high point or climax. Note any events that occur after the climax. These help to tie up the story for the viewer.

CLIMAX

★

Sample

↑

↑

↑

↑

↑

↓

↓

↓

↓

↓

Main Events

Wind Up

A Storyboard

A storyboard is a set of sketches that are arranged in a sequence, describing the scenes to be filmed.

Choose one main event from Star Wars: A New Hope. You may choose an event from your list of main events on page 8.

Create a storyboard for this event, including an introductory scene and a denouement. The introductory scene provides the basic facts for the viewers. The denouement is the final part, where everything is made clear.

Introduction
	Denouement	